

It's okay to wait!

ANTIGEN TEST DID YOU KNOW?

Did you know that the antigen test contains poisonous toxins?

Did you know Health Canada has issued a warning about the use of the test?

<https://recalls-rappels.canada.ca/en/alert-recall/rapid-antigen-test-kits-and-potential-exposure-hazardous-substances>

Did you know that sodium azide and Proclin may be poisonous if swallowed or absorbed through the skin, particularly in children and pets?

Do you know how many tests were sent home with your child, did they all land in your house?

Did you know that product labelling and instructions may not describe or disclose the risks?

Did you know that Health Canada is aware of approximately 50 calls made to poison centres in Canada related to accidental exposure, which have resulted in minor health outcomes?

Did you know anything inserted into the nose is absorbed into the body?

Did you know as a toxic substance as per Health Canada website, they are to give disposal instructions? Did you receive those instructions?

Did you know that no one is liable for any injuries as a result of this mismanagement of a toxic substance?

www.MamaBearsProject.com

